Kingfisher History Knowledge Organiser Term 2

Why do people go on journeys?

Key Objectives

- To be able to explain why people undertake journeys.
- To understand why Walter Raleigh made voyages of exploration in Tudor times.
- To understand why the Irish 3rd class passengers travelled on the Titanic.
- To recognise why the Kindertransport took place.
- To identify why people travelled on the Empire Windrush.
- To explain why refugees risk their lives making journeys today.

Key Vocabulary

Journey	An act of travelling from one place to another.
Migration	Movement of people to a new area or country in order to find work or better living conditions.
Emigration	The act of leaving one's own country to settle permanently in another; moving abroad.
Immigration	The action of coming to live permanently in a foreign country.
Refugee	A person who has been forced to leave their country in order to escape war, persecution, or natural disaster.
Migrant	A person who moves from one place to another, especially in order to find work or better living conditions.
Invader	A person or group that invades a country, region, or other place.

Sticky Journeys to Remember

- Sir Walter Raleigh sailed to America many times and brought potatoes and tobacco to England.
- RMS Titanic was a large British passenger ship that sank in 1912 after hitting an iceberg.
- The Kindertransport helped save Jewish children by bringing them to Britain from Nazi-controlled countries during World War Two.
- The HMT Empire Windrush brought people from the Caribbean to Britain in 1948. These people became known as the Windrush Generation.