

Term 4 Kingfisher Class: Religious Education

What is the 'golden rule', and how might it be put into practice by people from different religious and non-religious worldviews?

Key vocabulary
Golden Rule	Treat others as you want to be treated.
Christianity	A religion based on the teachings of Jesus.
Islam	A religion followed by Muslims.
Hadith	Reports about what Muhammad said and did.
Humanism	A non-religious way of thinking about life.
Worldview	A way of understanding the world and what matters.
Kindness	Being caring and thoughtful to others.
Faith	Belief and trust in God or religious teaching.

INTERPRETING
ART AND IMAGES

OBSERVATION

LOOKING AT STORIES

EXAMINING
TEXT

EVALUATING
ARGUMENTS

KEY KNOWLEDGE

- The Golden Rule means treating other people the way you would like to be treated.
- Lots of people think the Golden Rule is important, including people from different religions and people who are not religious.
- Christians learn about it from Jesus in the Bible.
- Muslims learn similar ideas from stories about Muhammad and the Hadith.
- Humanists also value the Golden Rule and think people should use kindness, reason, and fairness.
- The rule can sometimes be hard to follow, but it helps people be kind and respectful.