

CREATION AND SCIENCE: CONFLICTING OR COMPLEMENTARY? Knowledge Organiser Term 3

Key Vocabulary
Complementary	Different but making sense (or being useful or attractive) when used together
Conflict	if beliefs, needs, or facts, etc. conflict, they are very different and cannot easily exist together or both be true
Contemporary	Existing or happening now
Cosmology	Scientific study of the universe and how it was created
Evolution	the way in which living things change and develop over millions of years
Faith	A strong belief in something that is not proven	Key Knowledge
Genesis	The first book of the Old Testament of the Bible where the story of creation is found.
Science	the systematic study of the structure and behaviour of the natural and physical world, or knowledge obtained about the world by watching it carefully and experimenting.
Universe	everything that exists, especially all physical matter, including all the stars and planets in space.
By the end of this unit, you should be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Identify what type of text some Christians say Genesis 1 is, and its purpose. Suggest what Genesis might mean, and compare ideas with ways in which Christians interpret it, showing awareness of different interpretations, making connections with beliefs as God as creator. Show understanding of why many Christians find science and faith go together. Weigh up how far the Genesis 1 creation narrative is in conflict, or is complementary with a scientific account. 		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> There is much debate and some controversy around the relationship between the accounts in Genesis and contemporary scientific accounts.
		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> These debates and controversies relate to the purpose and interpretation of the texts. e.g. does reading Genesis as a poetic account conflict with scientific accounts?
		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> There are many scientists throughout history and now who are Christians.
		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The discoveries of science make Christians wonder even more about the power and majesty of the Creator. 	