

Seasonal Change Knowledge Mat

Subject Specific Vocabulary		Interesting Book	Sticky Knowledge about seasonal change
Autumn	The time of year between September and November. Many leaves fall off the trees.	 	<input type="checkbox"/> In the UK we have four seasons: spring, summer, autumn and winter. Summer is the hottest season and winter the coldest.
Spring	The time of year between March and May. There is usually lots of signs of new growth in Spring.		<input type="checkbox"/> Changes in the weather with each season affects animals and plants. We notice the different seasons by looking at the changes to plants and animals.
Summer	The hottest season in the UK. It happens between June and August. The longest day is June 21 st .		<input type="checkbox"/> Some animals (bats, hedgehogs and dormice) hibernate in the winter to shelter from the cold weather.
Winter	The coldest season in the UK. We can have snow in this season. It occurs between December and February.		<input type="checkbox"/> When we have our summer it is winter in the southern hemisphere. When we have our winter Australia has its summer.
Fall	The name given to the Autumn season by Americans. It is because so many leaves fall off the trees.		<input type="checkbox"/> Weather can be different in different parts of the UK. It tends to be cooler and wetter in parts of Northern England and Scotland. The west of the UK tends to receive more rainfall than the east of the UK.
weather	Weather is what the sky and the air outside are like, such as cold and cloudy.		<input type="checkbox"/> Seasons change throughout the year because of the way the Earth travels around the Sun.
temperature	It is measurement of hot or cold that can be measured using a thermometer.
thermometer	This is the instrument that measures the temperature.
weather symbol 	These are signs used to help us understand more about our daily weather.
deciduous	Deciduous trees are trees that shed their leaves once a year, usually during the season of autumn.
coniferous	Most conifers are evergreens, or trees that keep their leaves year-round.		