Owl History Knowledge Organiser Term 2

Why do people go on journeys?

Key Objectives

- To be able to explain why people undertake journeys.
- To understand why Walter Raleigh made voyages of exploration in Tudor times.
- To understand why the Irish 3rd class passengers travelled on the Titanic.
- To recognise why the Kindertransport took place.
- To identify why people travelled on the Empire Windrush.
- To explain why refugees risk their lives making journeys today.

Key Vocabulary

Journey	An act of travelling from one place to another.
Migration	Movement of people to a new area or country in order to find work or better living conditions.
Emigration	The act of leaving one's own country to settle permanently in another; moving abroad.
Immigration	The action of coming to live permanently in a foreign country.
Refugee	A person who has been forced to leave their country in order to escape war, persecution, or natural disaster.
Migrant	A person who moves from one place to another, especially in order to find work or better living conditions.
Invader	A person or group that invades a country, region, or other place.
Prejudice	A judgement based on an unfair dislike for someone because of their religion, race or other characteristics.
Discrimination	Unfair treatment of someone because of a characteristic.

Sticky Knowledge

- Sir Walter Raleigh led many expeditions to America and introduced tobacco and the potato into England.
- RMS Titanic was a British passenger liner that sank in the North American Ocean in 1912.
- The Kindertransport was a British rescue mission which aimed to move Jewish children out of Nazi Germany and its territories during World War Two (1939 – 1945).
- The HMT Empire Windrush was a ship which travelled from the Caribbean to Britain in 1948. Caribbean people who moved to the UK were known as the Windrush Generation. Some travellers had a positive experience but others faced discrimination.
- People continue to travel to the UK today for many reasons, including finding work and escaping persecution in their own country.